

any adjudged violation thereof, and to execute the laws, rules and ordinances that may be made and provided by the board of commissioners of said corporation for the government and regulation thereof; but in all cases any person dissatisfied with the judgment of the mayor may appeal to the next criminal term of the Superior Court, as in case of judgment rendered by a justice of peace. If the offense charged exceeds the jurisdiction of the justice of the peace the mayor may bind the accused, under proper bond, payable to the State of North Carolina, to the next term of the Superior Court of Haywood County. In all cases of appeal from the mayor's court to the Superior Court, when the offense charged is the violation of the corporate ordinance, the mayor shall send with the papers in the case a true copy of the ordinance alleged to have been violated, and shall certify under his hand and seal that said ordinance was in force at the time of the alleged violation of the same, and such certificate shall be held and taken to be prima facie evidence of its passage by the said board of commissioners for the purpose of said trial.

SEC. 20. Before entering upon his duties, the mayor, before some person authorized by law to administer oaths, shall take and subscribe the oath to the effect that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties imposed upon him by law, which oath, with the records, shall be recorded in the book of records of the corporation.

SEC. 21. In all cases when judgment may be entered up against any person for fines under the laws and ordinances of the corporation, and the person against whom the same is adjudged refuses or is unable to pay such judgment or fine, it may and shall be lawful for the mayor before whom such judgment was entered to order and require such person so convicted to work on the streets or other public works until at a fair rate of wages such person shall have worked out the full amount of the judgment and costs of the prosecution, or the offender may be committed to the common jail of Haywood County, with the right of the commissioners to work him on the public roads of the said county, and all sums recorded for such fines shall be paid into the treasury.

SEC. 22. The board of commissioners may and it is authorized to appoint one or more town marshals, who shall, before a person authorized to administer oaths, take and subscribe to an oath that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his office according to law, which oath shall be filed in the records and recorded in the books of the corporation.

SEC. 23. The said marshal or marshals, as police officers, shall within the corporation have all the powers of a constable in the county, and as ministerial officers shall have power to serve all criminal and civil processes that may be directed to them by the Right of appeal.

Parties bound over.

Record on appeals.

Mayor to qualify.

Fines worked out.

Town marshals.
Marshals to qualify.

Powers of marshals.